TRIBUTE PAID TO THE MEMORY OF LATE CHAS. A. HENRY

All that was mortal of Charles A.
Henry, late depot ticket agent of the Ogden Union Railway and Depot company, was laid at final rest yesterday afternoon in the Mountain View cemetery. The interment was preceded by an impressive funeral service held in the Masonic temple, under the auspices of Weber lodge No. 6, F. & A. M.
Prominent railroad men of Ogden, Salt Lake and other towns, members of the Masonic order, the Weber club and Elks' club and other friends attended, filling the temple auditorium to capacity. To this mark of respect was added tributes of love in the form of many beautiful floral pieces.

The Rev. W. W. Fleetwood, dean of St. Mark's cathedral in Salt Lake City, officiated and delivered an impressive sermon and eulogy. Special music was furnished by Mrs. C. H. Stevens, who sang two solos.

The pallbearers were C. S. Schramm and John Critchlow of Salt Lake City, Abbot R. Heywood, H. H. Henderson, Thomas Carr, W. C. Cheevers, Frank E. Nichols and J. H. Dods of Ogden.

REV. A. H. KENNEDY, FROM PONTIAC, MICHIGAN

The Rev. A. H. Kennedy, temporarily in charge of the local Episcopal congregation, will officiate at the services in the Church of the Good Shepherd tomorrow. He was born at Bath, near Kingston, Canada, and his first pastorate was that of the Episcopal church at Summerville, near Boston. This he held six and one-half years, then going to Calgary, Canada. He remained in Calgary for one year and his next post was at Pontiac, Mich., where he remained two years.

While the Rev. Kennedy was pastor of the Calgary church the European war broke out and nearly all of the male members of his congregation enlisted. He received sad news of these and other residents of Calgary, who went to the front, while going from Pontiac to Canada to visit old friends before coming to Utah. Meeting Sergeant Shaw of the Princess Pat regiment, he was told by that officer that of 1150 men with the first contingent of the regiment at Ypres, only 82 are now alive.

Speaking further of the war, Sergeant Shaw told the minister that the awful slaughter of Germans by the rifles of the Canadians in the Ypres salient was unrivaled in the history of the war. The Teutons were mowed down by the thousands. In this same battle, the sergeant continued, the French-African troops broke under the gas attack of the Germans and left an opening nearly two miles wide in the allies' line which, it is known, would have given the Germans an unobstructed pathway in their march on Calais.

FORESTERS GUESTS OF HONOR AT THE WEBER CLUB

Henry S. Graves, chief forester, and Assistant Foresters E. A. Sherman and Franklin W. Read, of the United States forest service department, were guests of honor last night at a banquet in the Weber club. Their hosts were the officers and directors of the Weber club and Ogden Publicity bureau, twenty-two persons being seated at the banquet table.

In all its appointments, the banquet was an elaborate affair, a fitting compliment to the men who are playing an important part in the development and conservation of the natural resources of the intermountain and western country. To Mr. Sherman, the affair was a homecoming, as he was formerly district forester of the Ogden district.

Mayor Abbot R. Heywood presided and welcomed the guests on behalf of the Weber club and Publicity bureau. This address was the introduction to several interesting and important talks. The other speakers being W. L. Watis, John Browning, Chief Forester Graves, Assistant Forester Sherman and District Forester L. F. Kneipp.

WOMEN FAVOR A BONDING ISSUE

Immediate action toward placing the Ogden city schools in a safe and sanitary condition will be urged on the city board of education at an early session by the Child Culture club, according to a resolution adopted yesterday afternoon at the regular meeting of that society. The meeting was held at the Berthana hall and the adoption of the resolution followed the presentation of a detailed report concerning the schools in regard to sanitation, light, heat, class-room space and other features. This was presented by a special committee of the club, which had made a comprehensive investigation of the schools.

Mrs. P. T. Wright, in an excellent address, expressed the opinion that the school board, is pressed at present by lack of funds to make the improvements, could obtain the money through a bond issue. The bond issue could be decided by an election.
Similar opinions were expressed and recommendations made by Mrs. Georgiana Marriott, Mrs. Thomas D. Deg and other ladies.

WILLIAM C. WRIGHT BREAKS RECORD IN BILLIARDS

William C. Wright was the envied billiardist at the Weber club, being placed on a pedestal by his fellow participants in the tournament now running, after making a record run of 201 points in an exhibition game of three ball straight rail billiards. His opponent in the game, which was played in the club parlors at noon, was H. W.
Dunn and their playing was watched by a large number of enthusiasts.

Mr. Wright's achievement gives him the club record for the three ball straight rail game and it is also thought that this is a new state record.

DEAL CLOSED FOR THE PARKER CANNERIES

Vice President R. I. Bentley of the California Packing corporation was here today and personally completed the deal whereby his concern acquires title ownership to the six canneries in and around Ogden which were owned or controlled by State Senator W.
J. Parker.

Lucian R. Ray, manager of the Utah Cereal Food company, also sales agent of the Amalgamated Sugar company, marketing its product in Utah, Idaho and Nevada, was placed in charge of the California Packing corporation's business, with offices at 523-524 Eccles building. Mr. Ray also is senior member of the Ray & Whitney company, brokers, headquarters at Salt Lake.

Mr. Ray, when interviewed, declined to disclose the purchase price of the Parker canneries. He said the previous business organization would be maintained without change; that the same wages would be paid to employes and that some improvements would be made in several of the factories.

"What will your company pay, on contract, for tomatoes?" he was asked.
"Twelve dollars," he replied, which settles the question which has been asked and answered in varying form in the last month. This was Mr. Ray's first statement, however. He added nothing to it, no conditions of any kind, simply "twelve dollars." He agreed with the interviewer in the remark that the farmers could be expected to raise a bumper crop of the coveted "love apples" at this price.

Mr. Ray said he would say nothing concerning the market price of sugar.

Asked if he was a Californian, Mr.
Ray proudly replied, "No, sir, I'm a Utah, born and reared at Fillmore." Donald D. McKay, president of the State Farm Bureau, comprising in its membership all of the county farm bureaus, stated this afternoon that the farmers who will raise tomatoes have agreed to accept $12 per ton, and that their contracts are submitted to the county bureaus signed, but with the name of the factory left blank. The bureau fills in the name of the factories to which the tomatoes are assigned, thus perfecting a step further the long desired system of co-operative marketing.

STRUCK OVER HEAD AND ROBBED OF HIS MONEY

W. D. Armstrong of Kanebo, was assaulted and robbed last night, his assailants securing $75. He was found by a negro porter employed in a lower Twenty-fifth street barber shop, on Lincoln avenue near Twenty-fifth street, in a dazed condition, about 9:30 o'clock. The robbery was reported to the police department soon afterward and Armstrong was taken to the station for first aid treatment.

Fraternal Societies

Order of Eagles.
On last Wednesday evening, Ogden Aerial No. 118, of the Fraternal Order of Eagles initiated a large class of candidates into the mysteries of Eagledom, and also held a well attended and enthusiastic meeting, a number of good speeches were made in praise of the work the Order is doing in this city.

Our new home which is nearing completion, was spoken of with much praise. The successful efforts of the brothers most responsible for our good fortune in securing such beautiful quarters were lauded.
On March 21st we will hold our last social in our present quarters.
This will be a novelty smoker, such as has never been given in the city before. It will be something new, something different. You can't guess what it will be like. Don't try, but come up each of you. The committee reports everything progressing nicely and guarantees every one a good time.

Modern Woodmen of America.

A little over a year ago Utah Camp No. 9999 Modern Woodmen of America insisted that the head officers of the society place in this field a good live deputy. Appreciating the fact that Utah afforded a great field for fraternal insurance, the head officers sent as its representative Neighbor, Sam T. Query of Loveland, Colo. Neighbor Query took the field under rather unfavorable circumstances, but today he is proud of his efforts, and well he might be. He has added more than one hundred new members to this camp and they are some of the best men of the community. The camps' meetings have taken on new life and the Modern Woodmen boys are now noted for their jolly spirit and fraternalism.

Neighbor Fred E. Williams is consul of the local camp and he sees that nothing is left undone to help live the interests of the fraternity. His wit and genial spirit has done much to keep the neighbors together. That the camp appreciated his services is evidenced by the fact that they re-elected him to serve for another year, a distinction not usually given.

The jolly and fraternal spirit that predominated last Wednesday night at the regular meeting was noticeable.
Several sick Woodmen were reported, and the sick committee reported that they had all been visited and where assistance was needed it had been extended.

Clerk J. R. Hinchcliff reported that Past Head Consul W. A. Northcott had passed away and a resolution of condolence was introduced. The camp also appropriated five dollars to be used as a gift in helping to erect a suitable monument to his memory.
Neighbor Northcott was head consul for the Modern Woodmen for thirteen years and in his death the society loses a wise counselor. He was an honest, fearless advisor, he did not hesitate to point out the defects, but he never uncovered a defect without suggesting a remedy. During the time he was head consul he worked unselfishly for the society's advancement. The membership still owe him a debt they never can pay unless it is to reverse his memory and hold aloft his work as a criterion for others.

After the regular business of the evening was over, the degree staff took the chairs and the following new members were added to the four hundred and fifty members now in good standing. They consisted of Clyde B.
Petrie, T. J. Halstrom, A. T. Morris-son, M. H. Stone, Joe Gross, W. J.
Brache and Ernest Hayes. They were given the fraternal degree and the evening was highly enjoyed by all who attended.

Owing to the inclement weather on Thursday evening, the attendance was not so large as usual, but the members who attended were amply repaid for coming out.

option in the near future.
